Question
Is it possible to issue a CCA or ENEC Certificate on an adaptor as a single component?
Decision
The issuing of a CCA Certificate on a single adaptor is not allowed. The CCA Certificate shall be issued on the complete track system. The issuing of an ENEC Certificate for a single adaptor is not allowed (see PD ENEC 301 Annex B). The ENEC Certificate shall be issued on the complete track system.
Explanatory notes
Track systems shall exist of at least a track, supply connector, coupler and adapter. All components according to the manufacturer catalogue shall be subject for testing. For a multi-adaptor as a single component it is not possible to issue a certificate, as the adapter manufacturer cannot control the dimensions of the essential parts of the third party track.
